ATHLETIC PARK FOR SCHOOLBOYS

Plan to Have It Adjoin New Century Speedway.

ROAD DRIVERS IN SESSION SIX OF LAST YEAR'S MEN

Encouraging Financial Reports Read. May Increase Width of the Driveway.

A drill park and playground will probably adjoin the new Century Speedway, on the reclaimed Potomac flats, between Nineteenth and B Streets and the old Naval Observatory, P. V. De Graw, secretary of the Road Drivers and Riders' Association, suggested the plan to Gen. H. V. Boynton, president of the Board of Education of the Public Schools, who heartily seconded it, as a playground for football and baseball games, etc., has long been needed by school boys.

The Engineer Department, which has the flats in charge, will gladly turn part of them over to the District for use as a public school park, it is said. A site will be selected adjoining the speedway as soon as weather conditions permit, when Mr. De Graw and General Boynton will take a survey of the land.

The speedway will add attraction to the athletic park, and the athletic park to the speedway. It is pointed out that a playground can be constructed at but little expense on the flats. Funds could easily be raised by public subscription to level the ground, beautify it, and erect a grandstand and dressing rooms. On a field of the kind proposed, the competitive drills of the High School Cadets and baseball, football and other games could be held, with a little speeding on the side to eleven matters.

Road Drivers Meet.

The Road Drivers and Riders' Association met in monthly session at the Metropolitan Hotel last night. Encouraging financial reports were read. General Miles, president of the association, presided, with P. V. De Graw as secretary.

B. F. McCauley reported having secured promises of $80 toward the expenses of the speedway, and was given a vote of thanks by the association. Encouraging reports were also made by H. P. Helskell and Mr. Gheen. The cost of the speedway, according to present plans, will be $1,500. One-half of this amount is in the treasury and $1,425 is pledged. It is probable, however, that the width of the speedway will be increased from 50 to 100 feet, which will necessitate an extra $1,000. A motion to increase its width was laid on the table. Contractor McNamara, who has the work in charge, stated that 4,000 feet have been completed, and with favorable weather, the speedway will be ready for use within a week. A parade will inaugurate the opening of the speedway on George Washington's Birthday, February 22.

Request for Call Box.

A request will be sent to Major Sylvester to place a call box at Nineteenth and B Streets so that aid may be obtained in case of an accident.

SULLIVAN GETS DECISION OVER JIMMY BRIGGS

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 12.—In one of the fastest and most scientific bouts seen here this winter, Dave Sullivan, of New York, obtained the decision over Jimmy Briggs, of Chelsea, at the end of fifteen rounds before the Criterion Athletic Club. It was Sullivan's fight save for two rounds, when Briggs tried rushing tactics with some success.

In the last round both men tried for a knockout. Body fighting was a feature of the bout throughout.

CONNIE MACK SIGNS SLAB ARTIST HARTLEY

Manager Connie Mack has signed Pitcher Walter S. Hartley, of last season's Harrisburg (Pa.) club, and better known as "Chick" Hartley. Hartley pitched for Wilmington in the famous championship game played on the Philadelphia Athletics' grounds in 1902 between the Wilmington and Brandywine, and also pitched for Harrisburg against Camden on the Athletics' grounds in October last on tri-State championship day.

He was a teammate to Cassidy, who has signed with the Senators.

BLUE AND GRAY CANDIDATES OUT

Dempsey Puts Those for the Crew at Work.

SIX OF LAST YEAR'S MEN

Captain Russell and Teevan Are the Only Old Men Missing.

Georgetown crew candidates began their first active training of the season on Monday afternoon, when they were put on the rowing machines in College Hall, in charge of Coach Pat A. Dempsey, who guided the fortunes of Georgetown on the water last year. The crew which will represent the Blue and Gray at Poughkeepsie and Annapolis will be selected between now and spring. Those who put in an appearance on Monday seemed rather light, according to the opinion of Coach Dempsey, for a good four-mile squad, but as they were all drawn from the college proper Dempsey expects to make a few finds in the preparatory and other schools.

Light muscle-limbering work, the introduction of the Dempsey stroke, and getting used to the handling of the oars and the sliding seats composed the preliminary work. The candidates will work in squads on the machines for the next six weeks in order to become accustomed to the Dempsey stroke. About the first of March, if the weather is warm enough, the men will be boated, and then work will begin in earnest. Capt. Murray Russell and Teevan are the only members of last year's crew who are missing from this season's ranks. Russell was graduated last fall, and Teevan is attending Harvard this term.

Six Are Eligible.

The six men who are eligible this year are: Addison, stroke; Brennan, No. 7; Curran, No. 6; Hayden, No. 4; Graham, No. 2; Shepard, bow, and Shriver, coxswain.

The shell belonging to the varsity last year was such a bad one that it was found necessary to use a fifteen-year-old shell which formerly belonged to the old Columbia Athletic Club. This year, however, the college is having a new cedar shell built in New York by Ward & Co. It will be modeled after the plan of the Victory, with which Dempsey's famous Yeager crew won the international championship at Paris in 1900. It will be sixty-two feet long. The following candidates were named: Addison, No. 1; Atkinson, Shepard, Lusk, Foy, Fitzpatrick, and Grace.

1904—Atkinson, Shepard, Lusk, Foy, Fitzpatrick, and Grace. Cramer, Monahan, Ham, Graham, Kirby, Gelpi, Perrott, Donovan, Oblinger, Pendergast, Burns, Brennan Hayden and Curran. 1906—Boock, Kennedy, Kernan, Mudd, Simpson, Bliss, Linahan, W. Vignam, H. Vignam, Paine, and Lunsford. 1907—Shanley, Stewart, Keenan, Ridgeway, Green, Gannon, and Hettfield.

CLEVELAND WANTS SUNDAY BALL GAMES

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 13.—A delegation of Cleveland citizens, headed by Mayor Joseph McKenna, will go to Columbus early in the session of the present Legislature and ask that the assembly pass a law to allow any municipality of the State to decide for itself whether or not to allow the playing of baseball on Sunday. At present there is a State law against Sunday ball.

POOLROOMS THREATENED BY EXCESSIVE RATES

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—A blow from a new and unexpected source has been struck at poolroom keepers, to add to the discomfiture Commissioner McAdoo has caused by his campaign against all suspected places in the city. The telegraph company which has for years furnished wires and returns from the race tracks has advanced its rate to such an extent that, it is said, they will be prohibitive to about two-thirds of the poolroom men in this city.

It is asserted that the company was anxious to go out of the business, but owing to existing contracts could not do so, except by making the rates prohibitive.

FIVE-YEAR-OLD HERO.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 13.—Five-year-old Wesley McKee rescued his four-year-old brother, George, from fire at their home. When Wesley entered the room it was filled with smoke and flames from the blaze, having started on a lounge which was panic-stricken and could not move, and the older lad dragged him out of the room.

PROTECTION FOR GAME AND FISH IN DISTRICT

Reorganized Association Hears Strong Plea by Major Sylvester for Preservation of Finny Tribe.

A reorganization of the Game and Fish Protective Association of the District of Columbia was effected last night at the Ebbitt House. The old organization was represented by some twenty-five members, and a number of new men were present and elected to membership. A new constitution was adopted, and the following officers were chosen: President, Dr. W. S. Harban; vice president, Henry Talbot; secretary-treasurer, Dr. W. P. Young; wardman, Major Richard Sylvester; executive committee, John Breen, chairman; Henry L. West, W. S. Bronson, Joseph H. Hunter, Col. Green Clay Goodloe, Frank B. Curtis, and I. Walter Sharp.

Dr. T. S. Palmer, of the Agricultural Department, was suggested for president by the nominating committee, but declined to serve owing to the pressure of his official duties. A further change was the elimination of all committees excepting the executive committee. Major Sylvester was the principal speaker of the evening, and made a strong plea for the protection of game fish. The greatest danger to the life of

AUTO CLIPS TIME OF WORLD'S RECORD

Most Dare-Devil Trial Ever Attempted by a Human Being in Such a Vehicle.

NEW BALTIMORE, Mich., Jan. 13.—The wildest ride in the history of automobile racing was taken by Henry Ford, of Detroit, here yesterday afternoon, when he covered a mile straightaway on the ice of Anchor Bay in 35.2 seconds, clipping at one sweep 6 1/2 seconds of the world's record, held by Auguste of France, and reducing the American record an even 7 seconds.

The machine used was the rebuilt "99," on which Barney Oldfield made his initial bid for fame.

The trial was officially sanctioned by the Automobile Association of America. Something over 100 people lined up at the finish of the mile.

Before the start, four miles away, at the beginning of a cinder path stretch that led to the ice, Ford and his machine, E. G. Huff, with the automobile, were a mere speck.

As Ford flashed by the start on the ice it was noticed that he wore no goggles or protection for his face. Humped over his steering wheel, the tremendous speed throwing the machine in zigzag fashion across the fifteen-foot roadway, Ford was taking chances that no man, not even Barney Oldfield, had dared to tempt. Hanging to the bare side of the machine over the front axle was "Spider" Huff, the machinist. The tremendous lurching of the machine over the ice waves had made it evident that Ford himself would not be able to regulate the flow of gasoline into the motor, and Huff clung to the side of the water tank to do it, giving an example of nerve second only to that of the man who drove.

Watches Compared.

As he flashed over the finish there was a careful comparison of watches, and then a yell went up. Ford had broken the world's record. Immediately after the trial the automobile was shipped to New York, where it will be exhibited in the big automobile show.

TO OPEN PINE RIDGE LAND.

A tract of land ten miles long and five miles wide, adjoining the Pine Ridge Agency in Nebraska, which has been reserved for a long time to protect the Pine Ridge Indians from the sale of liquor within their borders, is to be recommended to be opened for settlement. This decision was recently arrived at by Commissioner Jones.

WISH COURT TO DECIDE.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York has begun proceedings in equity in the District Supreme Court against Anna M. Gregory and Ethel Kellogg, beneficiaries under an insurance policy on the life of the late Daniel M. Kellogg, to have the court decide to which of them the proceeds shall be paid.

BIG PURSE OFFERED CORBETT AND BRITT

Will Struggle for $15,000 in Twenty-Round Contest the First Week in March.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Jimmy Britt and Young Corbett will fight twenty rounds the first week in March under the auspices of the Colma Athletic Club, which offered them a $15,000 purse, with a privilege of accepting 75 per cent of the gross receipts instead of the purse. Both fighters accepted the offer, and will meet and select the exact date of the fight.

Judd Gibbs, manager of the Colma Club, posted $1,000 with Referee Edward Grady and promised to post the remaining $14,000 of the purse today. If he fails to produce the $1,000, the little fighters will divide the $1,000 forfeit. Other clubs bid for the fight, but $15,000 or 75 per cent of the gate receipts was the next highest bid.

The Yosemite Athletic Club is trying to match Terry McGovern and Eddie Hanlon for a twenty-round contest the last week in February.

THREE WILLS FILED IN PROBATE COURT

The will of Katherine A. Head, dated December 18, 1896, has been offered for probate. She leaves her estate to her son, Frazier D. Head, who is named executor.

Joseph Brazelton, by his will, dated December 31, 1891, makes his wife, Mary Brazelton, his sole legatee.

By her will, dated February 23, 1898, Margaret Fischer leaves her estate to her stepmother, Margaretta Kramer.

LAWYER MOSS FINED FOR FIGHTING WITNESS

Engaging in an affray with Burton R. White, who was a witness in Judge Kimball's court several days ago, cost Attorney John A. Moss $5 in the Police Court today. The testimony was that Moss guied the witness, while on the stand, and the latter beat him severely after leaving the court room.

"In throwing up his hand and clenching with his aggressor," Judge Scott said, "Moss was guilty of engaging in an affray."

GANS A WINNER OVER FITZGERALD

Baltimore Negro Outpoints His Opponent.

DECISION MEETS APPROVAL

Brooklyn Boy Finishes Strong, However, and Severely Punishes the Champion.

DETROIT, Jan. 13.—Before the largest crowd that has ever witnessed a boxing show in this city, Joe Gans, of Baltimore, champion lightweight of the world, successfully defended his title against Willie Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, after ten rounds of milling. In spite of the fact that Fitzgerald was a decided favorite in Detroit, there was not a dissenting voice last night to the decision of Referee Tim Hurst, although the bout was the first which Gans has fought in several years under the break system of boxing. He was as much at home as he would have been under the straight Queensberry rules.

Fitzgerald, while fighting a plucky battle, was at no stage, except in the ninth and tenth rounds, in the class with the champion. In the opening round Gans' clever left went home repeatedly to Fitzgerald's face, while with his right he played consistently for the body. Confidently the aggressor, he followed the Brooklyn boy about the ring, the latter showing that he feared Gans in every exchange and frequently covering up and allowing the champion to punch him at will.

Drops Fitzgerald.

Gans fanned Fitzgerald not less than four times in the battle, and while the white boy was never groggy the negro's supremacy was complete until the eighth round, when Fitz, urged by his seconds, rushed and landed several hard left swings to the body. These tactics were continued through the ninth round. Gans went to his corner vomiting and to a certain extent in distress. Fitz was on the aggressive in the tenth round, and fought bravely, but he apparently shot his bolt and the fight went to Gans by a large margin.

The Light Guard Armory here was packed to the doors with the largest crowd that has witnessed a boxing match in Detroit this year. Over 4,000 people were on the floor when the first preliminary was called. The bout between Joe Gans, of Baltimore, and Willie Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, was the main drawing card.

Both Under Limit.

The fighters weighed in at 6 o'clock, before the officials of the Metropolitan Athletic Club, and neither man raised the beam of the scales at 135 pounds, the weight agreed upon for the fight. Both men had rested quietly in their hotels during the day.

Fitzgerald was the first to enter the ring. Harry Tutthill and Frank Lavigne were his seconds. Gans kept the crowd waiting for fully twenty minutes. He had Al Hereford and Willie Campbell in his corner.

There was a long dispute over the gloves. Tutthill claiming Gans had had worn his second, Gans kept the crowd waiting for fully twenty minutes. He had Al Hereford and Willie Campbell in his corner.
